

BY THE
Lord Lieutenant and Council.

ORMONDE.

¶ The Lord Lieutenant and Council, do Order, Command and Proclaim, publick Humiliation, Fasting and Prayers to be observed in all the parts and Parishes within this Kingdom: that is to say, in the City of Dublin and Suburbs thereof on Wednesday the Twentieth day of this Month of June, and on Wednesday the Seven and twentieth day of the said Month, in and throughout the whole Kingdom: And therefore We will and require, That the Ministers and Parishioners of every Parish within this Kingdom, do duly repair to the Cathedral or Parish Church on every of the said days as aforesaid, to Divine Service and Sermons: Upon which days the Minister is to call upon the people, that they abstain from labour, and from pleasure, and from the ordinary works of their callings, and dedicate themselves on those days to Humiliation, Fasting, Prayer, works of Charity and Devotion, bewailing as well their own sins, as the great and known sins of the Kingdom, and supplicating Almighty God of his Mercy and Goodness, to bless and prosper all his Majesties Councils, and all his Armies and Fleets by Land and by Sea, and particularly his present expedition: And We will and require every Archbishop and Bishop to call upon his Clergy for the diligent and due performance thereof.

Given at the Council Chamber in Dublin, the Eighth day of June, 1666.
